

ANOTHER REVOLT
BEING PLANNEDPeriod of Peace in Mexico May Not Last Long.

CIENFICO PARTY IS SORE

Political Organization Deposed Because of the Maderista Movement Is Fomenting Discontent, but It Is Believed the People Are Weary of War and That Only Vigorous Political Activity Will Result.

Juarez, Mex., May 23.—Peace reigns supreme in Northern Mexico, where news of the signing of a peace agreement has penetrated.

The only disquieting reports were private advices from Mexico City that members of the "Cientifico" party, deposed because of the Maderista movement, were thinking of starting another revolution against the latter.

Trouble from the "Cientifico" element, it is admitted here, is expected, but whether or not it will take the form of armed revolution after Madero assumes power is not yet clear. It is not thought that the Mexican people will rally to any revolutionary movement for some time at least and the opposition from the "Cientificos," it is believed, really will be in the nature of vigorous political activity.

The insurrecto troops may be kept at the various garrisons in Mexico for a few months in readiness for trouble, but no definite plans along that line have been formed by Senor Madero. He intends to see that the guarantees are carried out by the installation of good governors and his intention at present is to keep the troops mobilized merely until complete order is restored.

DIAZ WILL GO ABROAD SOON

Will Spend Several Months Visiting in Europe.

Mexico City, May 23.—So soon as Madero's acceptance of the cabinet is received President Diaz will present his resignation to the chamber of deputies. On the assumption that this acceptance will be made within the next twenty-four hours it has been practically agreed that this most interesting document of the revolution will be made public May 24.

No effort is made now to disguise the fact that General Diaz will leave the country at an early date. It is expected he will spend several months visiting Europe.

SIX NEGROES ARE LYNCHED

Masked Men Display Forged Telegram and Take Blacks From Prison.

Lake City, Fla., May 23.—Six negroes were lynched here after a party of more than a dozen men, masquerading as officers, appeared at the county jail and secured possession of the men by presenting a forged telegram to the sixteen-year-old son of the sheriff ordering the release of the blacks to the alleged posse of officers.

The negroes were being held here for safekeeping on the charge of murdering B. B. Smith of Wadesboro and wounding another man named Register on May 12.

The lynchers, who had come from Tallahassee to Lake City in automobiles, took the negroes about a mile outside of Lake City, where they compelled them to stand abreast. Ten men then fired rifles and pistols at the negroes until every one of the six had been riddled with bullets.

CANOE SHOTS OVER DAM

Boy Drowns and Man Loses Life Trying to Recover Body.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., May 23.—While idling in a canoe above the dam Leo Kelley, aged fourteen, and his younger brother lost their hold of the ropes extending from the safety cable stretched across the river and their canoe shot over the dam and was broken to pieces.

The younger brother was hurled forward into comparatively still water, but was drawn into the whirlpool and drowned.

Two hours afterwards three men attempted to row up to the dam to get out the boy's body. Their boat was caught in the undertow and swamped. Two of them swam to safety, but Henry Warner was drowned.

DEDICATION AT VICKSBURG

Wisconsin Erects Monument to Its Fallen Soldiers.

Vicksburg, Miss., May 23.—The monument of another state in remembrance of its soldier dead in the siege of Vicksburg, was added to the war group here when Governor Francis E. McGovern of Wisconsin and about 150 Union Veterans dedicated Wisconsin's $100,000 tribute. Many of the veterans were accompanied by their wives and daughters.

The dedication in Vicksburg National Military park came on the forty-eighth anniversary of General Grant's famous attack on Vicksburg in which Wisconsin troops had a prominent part.

SECOND FIGHT
UPON LORIMERSenator La Follette Flays Man
From Illinois.

NETTLES SEDATE MEMBERS

Wisconsin Orator Startles His Hearers and Smashes an Almost Unbroken Precedent by Reading Aloud Names of Those Who Had Voted for and Against Seating the "Blonde Boss."

Washington, May 23.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin opened a second fight on Senator Lorimer to expel the "blonde boss" from congress and for two hours, despite the sweltering heat, addressed the senate and crowded galleries in his usual impassioned manner.

With the close of his first day's speech Senator La Follette startled his hearers and smashed an almost unbroken precedent of that dignified body by reading aloud from his place as part of his attack the names of the senators who had voted to permit Lorimer to retain his seat and those who had voted against.

This adaptation of the Chautauqua style of address rather nettled some of the more sedate members of the upper body. They did not like being pilloried in exactly this style.

Mr. La Follette asserted the belief that Lorimer had knowledge of bribery and corruption used to secure his seat and criticized the committee on privileges and elections for not having gone more thoroughly into this phase of the election case.

He expressed amazement that any member could have sat in his seat for three weeks after the sensational charges were made following the confessions of one of the bribe takers and not risen to a question of the highest constitutional privilege and defended his honor from the assault made upon it. He expressed the belief that no other member could have been so callous. Lorimer was pictured as the most unmoved man in the body when other members were cringing under the imputations brought against the senate by the public press.

Voice High but Hoarse.

With voice high pitched and yet hoarse with the tenacity of his emotions he asked:

"How could any man who is fit to be here, any man who is innocent, sit three weeks and not raise his voice in reply when other members of the senate were praying for God's sake and the honor of Illinois, speak?"

Mr. La Follette declared that the votes of the thirty Democratic senators for Mr. Lorimer would stick in the minds of the people when it was remembered that the Democratic votes were under the leadership of Lee O'Neill Browne, who had $30,000 strapped on his person. He said he understood that the senate committee had permitted an attorney in the case to divert it from an inquiry into Mr. Lorimer's knowledge in the case. Page upon page of the testimony, he declared, showed the closest associations between Mr. Lorimer, Speaker Shurtzoff and Lee O'Neill Browne, the Democratic leader.

"So, I say, I was convinced that Lorimer had personal knowledge," asserted Mr. La Follette. "It is inconceivable that he could have been there without having personal knowledge. It could not have been otherwise."

An immediate investigation of sweeping scope of the renewed charges that Lorimer is not entitled to his seat is provided for in two resolutions, by Senators Dillingham and La Follette. Both the Democratic steering committee and the Republican members of the senate committee on privileges and elections discussed the charges of corruption in the Lorimer case and Senator Dillingham, chairman of the elections committee, presented his resolution of inquiry as a substitute for the La Follette resolution.

FIVE OF FAMILY DROWNED

Small Boat Capsizes on the Mississippi River.

Arkansas City, Ark., May 23.—The sudden capsizing of a small bateau fifty feet from the Mississippi river landing at Arkansas City caused the drowning of five persons, all of one family. The dead are Parma Wilson, Irma Wilson, Mrs. Annie Wilson, Ida Wilson and Viola Wilson, all of Edutaw, Miss.

Nine members of the Wilson family were on the bateau with several other passengers when it capsized.

Bishop Raps Ibsen and Shaw.

St. Louis, Mo., May 23.—Bishop Morrison of Davenport in his annual address to the diocesan convention here roundly denounced the works of Ibsen and George Bernard Shaw as painting human nature as merely animal, and opposing religion, and calling on Episcopalians to fight them.

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN.

Oregon Senator Holds Up
Confirmation of Marshal.

OREGON SENATORS GET EVEN

Hold Up Confirmation of Marshal Because He Talked About Election.

Washington, May 23.—Because he expressed opinion that the members of the legislature of Oregon were not obliged to vote for George E. Chamberlain for the United States senate, although they had been so instructed by the people of the state, Senators Chamberlain and Bourne of Oregon objected to the senate's confirmation of Elmer B. Colwell as United States marshal in Oregon. The nomination was registered.

MEXICANS BRUTALLY
SLAUGHTER CHINESEOver Two Hundred Slain by Rebels After Battle.

Mexico City, May 23.—Official reports, reaching here by couriers traversing the devious trails of the plains and mountains before arriving at a telegraph station, tell the story of a massacre of 206 Chinese at Torreón, following the rebel occupation of that city last week. Upon receipt of the news at the Chinese legation, the charge d'affaires immediately made formal representations to the Mexican government.

The details of the story of the three-day battle and sacking of the city of Torreón are replete with incidents of cruelty that show clearly that the rebel leaders did not hold their men in control or that they deliberately turned them loose to prey upon a conquered and defenseless people.

The official advices do not give the number of dead, but taking the 206 Chinese as a basis it is certain that the number is larger.

The last day of the Torreón battle was May 15. On that day General Lejero retired with his federal forces and the rebels entered the city. Citizens found themselves utterly unable to control the mob and reports indicate that scores of innocent residents were added to the list of victims.

Always antagonistic to the yellow race the Mexican rebels and members of the mob engaged in a race riot. A great part of the business of Torreón is conducted by Chinese, some of whom are wealthy, and, according to reports received, the rioters shot down or stabbed without mercy every Oriental encountered.

CARPENTERS ARE ENJOINED

Nonunion Manufacturers of Wood Trim Go to Court.

New York, May 23.—A preliminary injunction was issued by the United States circuit court restraining two organizations of union carpenters, their agents and officials and 116 building contractors from calling out union men in other trades in a sympathetic strike for the exclusion in new buildings of wood trim made by non-union labor.

The complainants are the American Anti-Boycott association and a number of wood trim manufacturers throughout the country, including the Paine Lumber company (limited), and the Gould Manufacturing company. Both firms are located at Oshkosh, Wis.

CABINET SHIFTS PREDICTED

Insurgents Declare Taft Is to Add Another Progressive.

Washington, May 23.—The resignation of another member of President Taft's cabinet within the very near future, to make room for a more progressive man of the Fisher or Stimson type, was predicted by insurgent leaders. The belief was expressed privately that the president had reached the conclusion that his political status would be improved by the addition of another progressive to his official family. The newcomer is expected to replace one of the more conservative members, possibly Secretary of State Knox or Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh.

Insurgents Say Gallinger Represents All They Oppose.

WEST WON LIKE CONTEST.

The Game of Golf Interferes With the Game of Politics—Dickinson Did Not Feel at Home in Taft Cabinet—"Old Guard" Member Criticizes Appointment of Stimson.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 23.—[Special.]—The last contest over president pro tem. of the senate previous to that which now promises to be very prolonged was the west against the east. The west won. Senator Hoar of Massachusetts was the candidate of the east. The west put forward Senator Manderson of Nebraska, and he was elected. Four new states had then recently been admitted, and they joined a number of other western men and won for the west.

Not Personal Pique.

It is vehemently asserted by the insurgent Republican senators that they are not opposing Senator Gallinger, the Republican caucus nominee, because of personal pique on account of the fact that they did not get all they wanted in committee assignments, but because they feel that Gallinger is a type or represents a condition antagonistic to what they stand for in their contentions. The office of president pro tem. does not amount to anything. No man occupying the place can cast a deciding vote, as does the vice president. As a senator he votes irrespective of his position.

Golf Breaking Up a Party?

During the contest over the presidency of the senate Senator Bourne of Oregon was absent. As president of the progressive Republicans these senators thought he ought to be on hand, but it was found that he was at Hot Springs for his health. "Rather, say, playing golf," remarked one of the insurgents. "It seems to me that there is danger of our party being broken up by this game of golf. Bourne is devoted to it. Cummins is almost as bad, and Bristow has been bitten and may be corrupted. It is getting serious."

"Golf is the worst of all bad habits," remarked Senator Clapp. "A man may go on a bat, and he will get over it and return to his work. He won't spend the second day telling all about his achievements while he was on the bat."

And this is the president's favorite game and pastime. It was golf which T. Roosevelt described as "an old woman's game."

Didn't Feel at Home.

There might have been differences regarding the movement of troops to Mexico which caused Secretary Dickinson to resign as secretary of war, but the secretary frankly told his friends that he never felt at home in a Republican administration. "I never voted anything but a Democratic ticket in my life," said the secretary, "and I have all the feelings of a Democrat. When the president and the other members of his cabinet were discussing intimate Republican politics and policies in my presence I always felt embarrassed and out of place."

A Sop That Failed.

It was generally agreed in Washington that President Taft put Henry L. Stimson in the cabinet as a sop to former President Roosevelt. New York standpatters made that assertion with great positiveness. "It will fail of its purpose," remarked the most prominent man of the old guard, "for Roosevelt was not consulted and will not be pleased. If the president wanted to do something for Roosevelt he should recall the commission which he has given to the mining engineer—who has been called a liar several times in court proceedings in Washington—to be ambassador to the coronation of King George V. and send Roosevelt on the mission. Roosevelt is the one man in the United States to be selected for that mission. He is the first and former Vice President Fairbanks is the second to be considered. But the president does not seem to have been well advised in dealing with this matter."

And the man who talked in that strain had no reason to be fond of Roosevelt. At the same time he understood what would have pleased the ex-president more than anything else.

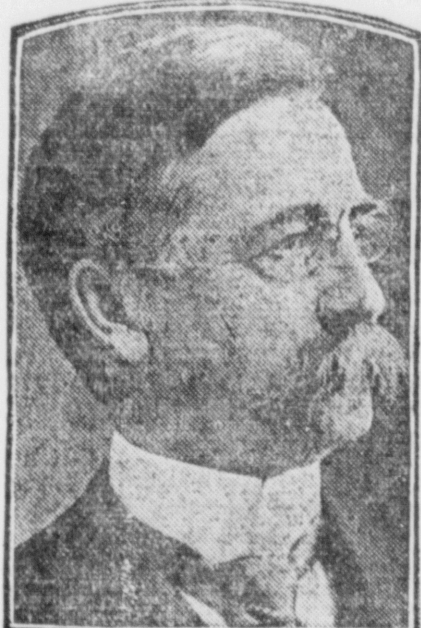

Oscar Took Notice.

One day when Oscar Underwood looked about the house and saw three men in the house besides the man who was making a speech on the tariff he went down to his seat and was lost in meditation for a time. Soon after he announced that he was going to close general debate. He literally let the house "talk itself out."

Just why a man will stand up and read or repeat a committed speech to three or four members of the house is one of the strangest things in house affairs. The latitude for debate on the tariff has been as wide as the members could wish. The Democratic leaders have evidently believed that they had as good arguments as their opponents, for they have been perfectly willing to allow all the talk anybody could desire.

DIRECT CHOICE OF SENATORS

Three Committeemen Report Plan Inexpedient and Unnecessary.

Washington, May 23.—Abandonment of national authority over the election of United States senators is strongly opposed in the report of the minority in the senate committee on the judiciary submitted to that body and signed by Senators Clark, Nelson, Dillingham, Sutherland, Brandegee and Root, on the proposed constitutional amendment providing for direct election of United States senators, and for removal of congressional control over the election of senators, but not over that of representatives.

Messrs. Dillingham, Brandegee and Root add that direct election of senators by the people instead of the legislatures is inexpedient and unnecessary.

MAY PRECIPITATE
FREIGHT RATE WARDelaware and Hudson Line Files
Tariff Reductions.

Washington, May 23.—A freight rate war among railways operating in the territory east of Chicago and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers—classification territory—is likely to be precipitated by the action of the Delaware and Hudson company in filing with the interstate commerce commission a tariff making reduction in the class freight rates between New York and Chicago.

Taking advantage of an order issued by the commission several days ago, granting the Delaware and Hudson permission to make rates lower for a longer than a shorter haul in the same direction and by a new route, the road has filed a tariff effective June 15 reducing the freight rates from New York to Chicago from 75 cents a hundred pounds, first class, to 62 cents a hundred, the rates on other classes of freight being proportionately lower.

By the new tariff the rates to intermediate points between New York and Chicago are proportionately higher than they are for the full distance.

No reason is known to the proposed commerce commission for the proposed cutting of rates. The Delaware and Hudson company was one of the Eastern carriers which represented to the commission in the great rate cases tried last winter that the class rate of 75 cents a hundred was too low and furnished an inadequate return to the carriers.

Already the commission has received an intimation from other Eastern carriers that they propose to contest the Delaware and Hudson's action and to ask the commission to suspend the proposed rate, pending an inquiry into its reasonableness. In this request, it is understood, the roads will be joined by shippers, in the belief that a rate contest at this time would be generally disastrous.

TWO KILLED IN SOO WRECK

Fireman Scalded and Conductor Is Crushed Under Debris.

Waukegan, Ill., May 23.—Two trainmen were killed and a third was seriously injured he probably will die when two freight trains on the Soo line met head on near Gray's lake. The dead are:

James Carey, Fond du Lac, Wis., fireman, scalded to death, and Fred Miller, Fond du Lac, conductor, buried beneath debris.

A brakeman, Ray Davis, jumped, but was so severely injured it is expected he will die.

STATE SELLS 16,800 ACRES

Big Demand and Good Prices at Sale in Roseau County.

Roseau, Minn., May 23.—What is said to be the largest land sale ever held in any one county in the state by state officials was held here when 16,800 acres of Northern Minnesota lands in Roseau county were disposed of at an average price of $7 per acre.

Several years ago the lands could not have been sold for a third of the amount received, but the advent of drainage canals and state aid for the reclamation of the big swamps in this territory has opened the eyes of settlers throughout the Northwest.

Bidders were present from six states, Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois and North and South Dakota being represented.

LEVY BARRED FROM CLUB

Another New York Legislator Excluded From Metropolitan.

Washington, May 23.—Jefferson M. Levy, newly elected representative in congress from the Thirteenth New York district (New York city), has failed of admittance to the Metropolitan club here, thereby sharing the fate of Representative Martin W. Littleton of New York and making the second New York congressman barred from the organization since the beginning of the extra session of congress.

The reason ascribed for the rejection of Mr. Levy's name is that he is a Jew. The same minority members of the governing board objected to his election who several weeks ago objected to Mr. Littleton because he was a "self made man."

Second Deitz on Iron Range.

Biwabik, Minn., May 23.—The iron range of Minnesota has a second John Deitz. He is Peter Vorbanich, Austrian homesteader, living on the north branch of Waterhen creek, eighteen miles south of here. For four days he has stood guard over the stretch of water before his home holding off the employees of the Northern Lumber company who seek to move logs past his land.

Sensational Evidence in Ouster
Suit at St. Louis.

STATE AFTER LUMBER TRUST

Testimony Shows Prices Were Fixed by Committee and Agreement Entered Into to Limit Output—Method of Controlling Prices Finally Abandoned in the Hope of Escaping Prosecution.

St. Louis, May 23.—That the big lumber companies agreed on the curtailment of production; that prices were fixed by a committee and that printed price lists were sent to all firms as a means of controlling the market were facts established in the initial hearing of the state's ouster suit against the alleged lumber trust.

Asked about a meeting of the Southern Lumber Manufacturers' association (which later was renamed the Yellow Pine Manufacturers' association) in the Hoo Hoo building at the world's fair in 1904, George K. Smith, secretary of the Yellow Pine Manufacturers' association, testified that the price list committee met in executive session at that time in conjunction with the regular semi-annual gathering of the association.

He testified from his records that the price list committee reported the lumber was being cut faster than it was being shipped and that a large surplus resulted and that so long as the surplus should continue "stable or advancing values would be impossible."

"A way must be found," the report continued, "to reduce the surplus and keep the supply in proportion to the demand."

The secretary's minutes of an executive session read:

"It was thought advisable to recommend to all manufacturers a reduction of 33½ per cent in the output of all saw mills until such time as the demand should more nearly absorb the supply."

He said notices were sent to all members to reduce their output for ninety days and that again before the expiration of the ninety-day period he sent another notice that curtailment should continue for ninety days more. He testified to the holding of seven committee meetings between June, 1904, and January, 1905. Asked whether these meetings all were held to raise prices, he said:

"There were that many meetings of the committee at which the committee gave its opinion as to what prices ought to be."

Later he testified the price committee's activities were discontinued by a vote of the association. The state tried to obtain an admission that this change was made to escape possible prosecution and Smith partially admitted this, saying it was desired "to avoid the charge of collusion to fix prices."

Federal Court Annuls Oklahoma Constitutional Amendment.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 23.—Holding the "grandfather clause" amendment to the state constitution invalid because it is in violation of the fifteenth amendment to the federal Constitution, Judge John H. Cotel of the United States district court overruled the demurrer of the defendants in the case of the United States versus J. J. Beal, Frank Guinn, D. W. Jeffries and Willard Smith, election officers.

The power to grant the right to vote, the court held, was not given to the federal government, but the fifteenth amendment says that the right to vote shall not be denied any person because of "race, color or previous condition of servitude."

W. D. Grant of Northumberland, Pa., were among the important happenings at the session of the 123rd annual general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

Animals in Fire.

When Cyprus was the center of the copper industry it is asserted that a four footed animal with wings lived in the hottest furnaces among the fire and, furthermore, that it would die instantly upon being removed from its natural element, the flames.

The salamander of old was also a creature which did not dread the fire. Some say that it could eat fire and spit flames, others that its breath would ignite all combustibles. Pliny says, "This animal is so intensely cold as to extinguish fire by its contact in the same way that ice doth."

WILL KILL DANDELIONS

Farm School Offers Suggestion for the Eradication of the Pest so Universal Eradication of the dandelion, is promised through sure and easy methods by Professor A. D. Wilson of the university farm school, R. W. Fisher, horticulturist at the agricultural college at Bozeman, Mont., and Professor H. L. Boley of the North Dakota agricultural college, following experiments with solutions sulphate of iron or copper. Sprayed with the right solution the dandelions promptly shrivel up and die.

Directions for killing the dandelions given out by farm school professors read in part as follows: "The iron sulphate or copper as it is commonly known, can be purchased for a few cents a pound in quantity, and is used at a rate of one and one-half to two pounds to one gallon of water. The solution should be applied soon after the iron sulphate is dissolved, as there is a chemical reaction which takes place soon after it is dissolved, and if left standing too long it lessens its power to kill the dandelion. It should not stand more than three or four hours. The solution is not poisonous to handle, but will discolor iron, stone and clothing, and reasonable care should be taken in applying it about houses where there are iron fences and stone foundations and walks.

"When the spray solution is properly made and applied, the dandelion can be killed without injury to blue grass or white clover. The solution should be strained through a fine sieve or cloth into the spray can so that material cannot get into the pump to clog it up.

"The solution cannot be successfully applied with a sprinkling can," according to the agricultural school bulletins, "as the large drops will not stay on the leaves. Spraying should be done when the wind is not blowing, and when the sky is partly cloudy."

EVELETH FIRM GETS HEATING CONTRACT

Northern Plumbing & Heating Co., of Eveleth, Lands Whittier School Heating Job

FIVE BIDDERS IN THE FIELD

Text Books Committee Report Accepted and Books Will Hereafter be Rented to Pupils

The school board met in special session last evening and all members of the board were present except H. H. Baker.

The call for the meeting was read which stated that the session had been called for the purpose of opening bids for the Whittier school heating and for the transaction of other business.

Five bidders were in the field and their bids were carefully considered. They were Stack Brothers, of Duluth; Northern Plumbing & Heating Co., of Eveleth; Deerwood Heating & Plumbing Co., of Deerwood; Slipp-Gruenhagen Co., of L. W. Sherlund. The contract was awarded the Northern Plumbing & Heating Co., of Eveleth, as the firm put in the lowest bid at $6,665, being $30 lower than its nearest competitor. They have a reputation for good work and recently completed in a most satisfactory manner a $45,000 heating job in the schools of Virginia on the western Mesaba range.

On motion the certified checks of the unsuccessful bidders were ordered returned to them. There were two propositions for running the pump at the school, electric or steam driven and the board decided in favor of the steam plan of running it. There were three methods to put in the floors in the toilet rooms, cement, maple flooring and tiling, and the board decided in favor of the cement.

The board then spent some time in executive session after which the report of the text book committee, Messrs. R. J. Hartley, George D. LaBar and J. H. Roderick was presented. This committee, after due consideration, recommended that hereafter the text books for the coming year be rented to the scholars at a rate ranging from 15 cents to 50 cents per semester or half year period. The recommendations of the committee were accepted and on motion the secretary was instructed to draw an order on the treasurer for $1,000 payable to the text book committee to be used in buying old books from the scholars at the close of this term, the balance of the money left over to be returned to the treasurer.

A request from some traveling photographers to take views of the different school rooms was refused. On motion, the board adjourned.

NORTHERN PACIFIC REPLACING TIES

Over the Entire System in Accordance With its Annual Program of Roadbed Improvement

TREATED AT BRAINERD PLANT

Where They are Subjected to a Preserving Process Which Lengthens the Life Five Years

The Northern Pacific is this spring replacing ties all over the system in accordance with its annual program of roadbed improvement. Each spring, 12 per cent of the ties along the line are replaced with new ones, and this spring there is being put in on all divisions a total of 2,645,588 ties.

The company has at Brainerd, Minnesota, a tie treating plant where are subjected to a preserving process all of the ties used with the exception of tamarack and red oak ties. This treating process consists in soaking the tie with creosote and other chemical salts, which lengthens the life of the tie by approximately five years. In the case of the tamarack and red oak ties, the texture of the wood is such as to prevent the treating process from "taking" and these ties naturally have the maximum lease of life.

The total renewal of ties on the system is 12 per cent, and the practice of the Northern Pacific is to make this renewal each year, with the result that every eight years, approximately, the ties on the system are entirely renewed.

A vast amount of rock and gravel ballast is also being placed on the right of way, especially in North Dakota and eastern Montana. Widening of right of way preparatory to constructing double track is also being pushed rapidly in those sections east of Rocky Mountains where the system is not already double tracked. Of its total mileage between Saint Paul, Duluth and the Pacific coast, the Northern Pacific now has in daily use, a total of 520 miles of double track and 1947 of alternate line. 455 miles between Saint Paul, Seattle and Portland are equipped with electric automatic block signals.

EXTRA—EXTRA

The Printers are Completing Organization of Team and are Engaged in Secret Practice

The note of defiance in the ultimatum issued by Pete Cardel that the barbers could skin the printers any time a game of baseball was played between the hair cutters and the ink handlers and pencil pushers has stirred the printers to action and a team organization is under way and the printers, it is said, are engaged in secret practice.

It is said the proof readers are developing the best batting eyes as they are always seeing things, but they may be expected to look for trouble and perhaps will find it. The coming game is such a topic with the barbers that no thought is being given to hunting dogs, bass fishing and the council proceedings.

Some years ago a game was played by these contestants and the printers were beaten by the score of 46 to 13, or something like that, and that game still rankles in the breast of the type setters. If there is one thing that hurts a newspaper man it's to be scooped by a barber.

ON RAILROAD GROUND

The Foley Hotel at Aitkin said to Have Occupied Railway Land For Many Years

The case of William Allis vs Amanda C. Foley and D. R. Foley filed in the district court at Aitkin reveals an interesting suit wherein it is alleged by the purchaser that the three story brick building he bought has occupied 40 feet of railroad ground for many years. The right of adverse possession does not operate against a railway company and so it is said Allis gains no title to the strip.

Should he have to remove the building 40 feet back he would land in Mud river. The outcome of this case will be watched with much interest.

YOUR REGULAR JOB

of feeding the furnace won't be such a long one if you use our clean freeburning coal. For every shovelfull you put in will mean more heat than you ever got before from the same quantity of coal. Consequently you need less coal and have to do less shoveling. See the point?

JOHN LARSON

"What a Relief!"

Only the woman who has tried knows what comfort and relief a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove brings into the kitchen.

It is not only that the New Perfection cooks so well. It saves so much work in other ways. There are no ashes to clean up before going to bed; no fire to bank for the night. Everything is ready for cooking in the morning at a touch of a match.

You are saved from an overheated kitchen; saved from soot and dirt; saved from chopping wood and carrying coal. In the kitchen or the laundry, for the lightest or the most elaborate meal, you will find the New Perfection stove with the New Perfection oven is the best and most convenient.
